THE GAZETTE.

FRIDAY EVENING NOV. 9, 1894.

WON HER ON A TRAIN.-Alva Hill and Mrs. Famy G. Ballard, on their way East from Detroit, arrived here yesterday, says a Lockport, N. Y., tele gram. They had met before, some years ago, and on the train Hill, who is 34, took a seat with Mrs. Ballard, who is 51. Hill proposed matrimony, and was accepted by the widow. Hill left Mrs. Ballard in the waiting room while he went out to look for a minis-ter. He went to the Central House and inquired if it was necessary to secure a license to get married. He was told "no." Several men told him that they had a justice of the peace there who would perform the ceremony.

Mrs. Ballard was brought to the hotel and Thomas Lawrason tied the knot. Lawrason wrote out a statement that he had performed a mock marriage ceremony and that Hill and Mrs. Bal-lard were the parties. This they sign ed, thinking it was genuine. The bride tucked it away in her bosom and left for Albion, where the bridegroom has a farm, unconscious that the whole thing was a joke.

EXPLORATIONS NEAR BABYLON .-The human race is nearly ten centuries older than science had knowledge of before, as a result of extensive explorations of the ruins of Niffer, near anciem Babylon, as described in a report to the State Department by Minister Terrell, at Constantinople. These explorations are being made at the expense of Philadelphians, and D Peterson and Prof. Hilpricht of the University of Pennsylvania, have supervised the work.

Many tons of tablets, vases, inscribed brick sarcephagi and the like have been exhumed, the sensual and revolting worship of the god Bel is more clearly worship his colosed temple, with its known, his colossal temple, with its one hundred and eighty rooms, has been exposed, and the religion, government and customs of men who lived 4,000 years before Christ have been revealed by the translated inscriptions. Minister Terrell says that it will require sixty volumes to contain the discriptions of these discoveries.
